Artist Biography 2024

Jane Marin is a talented intuitive painter and globally recognised illustrator hailing from Bundaberg, Queensland, with a string of accolades to her name. Renowned for her captivating work featured in publications and oracle cards around the world, Jane is also a bestselling author, speaker, and self-confessed bohemian. Residing on a sugar cane farm with her husband Livio, she treasures her connection to the outdoors and the joys of time with two grown children and their families.

With a diverse skill set including Interior design, Child Psychology, Intuitive healing, Reiki Master, Past life therapy, and Life Coaching, Jane now focuses her expertise on her art and the transformative "Creative Soul Retreats" she hosts, both in person and through her online platform.

Her work serves as a conduit for healing past wounds, illuminating present moments, and cultivating joy and serenity in life. In 2011, when her clients began revealing that they could feel healing energy emanating from her work, Jane made the decision to start sharing her art with the world and subsequently landed multiple illustration contracts.

Her artistic expression delves into the profound connections between healing and colour, shapes and symbols often portraying iconic figures from legend and mythology. Each piece is created to evoke sentiments of resilience, love, empathy, courage, and compassion, aiming to uplift and inspire viewers to embrace positivity, healing and inner peace.
